

Summit Strings violin ensemble is comprised of talented young musicians throughout the Kamas Valley who wish to expand their musicianship in a fun and social environment and take their talent to the next level. We love to perform and share our love of music with others. Under the direction of Marcy Burrell and Melanie Schiemer we cover a diverse array of music selections including classical, pop, and fiddle.